

World Antimicrobial Awareness Week (WAAW) – 2022

“Sree Chitra - WAAW Essay Prize 2022”

Topic

“Preventing Antimicrobial Resistance Together: One Health Approach”

The competition is open to all undergraduate and postgraduate students from colleges across India. It is part of a campaign to create awareness about AMR among all sections of society and professionals.

First Prize: Rs. 5000, Second prize: Rs. 2000.

And a merit certificate

All participants will get a participation certificate

Rules: The essay should be written in the English language, with a maximum limit of 1500 words.

Each essay should have: Introduction, Discussion on the subject with regard to human, animal or plant sciences and a Conclusion. Essays should be pre-checked for spelling and grammar mistakes. No essays with mistakes will be accepted. Evaluation will be done anonymously. A letter from the Head of the Department certifying as a bonafide student of the department and college should be sent with the entry. Only one entry is permitted per student.

All entries should be e-mailed to sctmicro321@gmail.com as PDF document

Deadline: 5pm on 18th November 2022.

For any queries, please call 09916296060