

One day Workshop on Laboratory Quality Control Practices was conducted by the Department of Transfusion Medicine on 26 August 2022. It was meant to apprise the blood centre technicians and post graduate students of MD Transfusion Medicine in the day-to-day quality practices to be followed for ensuring safe blood transfusion. We had participation from all over Kerala.